

We stand with YOU

Our mission at Swedish Institute has been consistent throughout our many years of education and service. We strive to create a safe and welcoming place for all students and staff, which fosters a productive learning and working environment. Every student and staff member is valued and has a voice. Simply put, discrimination or harassment of any individual is unacceptable and goes against our core values.

For more information on student diversity, click here.

